

O'DONNELL WAS WILLING

To Sacrifice Himself if the Old Men Were Taken Back.

BUT THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Refused to Help Him Out or Endorse
His Sentiments, and this is the Reason
Why He May Resign—Superintendent
Potter was Willing to Take Old Employees Back Except Those Charged With Criminal Offenses.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 26.—It is quite likely Hugh O'Donnell will resign the chairmanship of the advisory committee, if he has not already done so, and the indications are that the committee is casting about for a new leader. The break-up was caused by the refusal of the committee to approve an almost unconditional surrender in the fight on hand.

Mr. O'Donnell expressed himself as anxious for a settlement even if he had to be sacrificed. He authorized two newspaper men, F. D. Madeira, of New York, and J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, to see Superintendent Potter and ascertain upon what terms the old men could return to work. When they had executed the commission O'Donnell wanted to bring them before the committee, but that body would not admit them.

This rebuff undoubtedly will cause O'Donnell's resignation, as he said he would resign if his colleagues did not endorse his sentiments. The mediators called upon Superintendent Potter and wanted to know upon what terms he would accept the old employees. He said there was no vindictiveness in their dealings with the men, but they would not take back certain strike makers under any circumstances. No names were mentioned, but he said those against whom criminal charges had been preferred were among them. Even these might not be rejected if the information against them proved incorrect.

He further stated that the men would not be questioned about membership in any organization, but they would be required to sign an agreement as individuals fixing the scale of wages as based on the $23 billet rate. There would be no dealings with any association committee except as provided in the agreement for a committee of workmen and officials to meet quarterly and fix the price of billets. No men now in the employ would be discharged if the work was satisfactory. The mediators were assured that the places were being filled rapidly. The advisory committee refused to admit the newspaper men but said they would have the report through the chairman. This was refused as they had no interest in the matter except to bring the two parties together. Superintendent Potter was informed of the result, and expressed regret as the places of the old men were being rapidly filled.

Mr. Carrick who was present took occasion to deny the statement that Andrew Carnegie would interfere. He stated that in a cablegram just received Mr. Carnegie said he had no intention of returning to America at present, and that he would not interfere with the management or interpose to settle the lockout.

TROOPS TO WITHDRAW

From Homestead—The News Received
With Indifference by the Strikers.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 26.—The withdrawal of soldiers from Homestead has commenced. Wildly enthusiastic cheering to-day among the hundreds of white tents on Shanty hill proclaimed the fact to the strikers in their homes at the foot of the slope. The lucky boys who were the first ones to get marching orders were the members of the Eighth regiment.

The city troops of Philadelphia received leave to face homeward and the Fourteenth regiment was also similarly gratified. The departure of the Fourteenth was not to be until to-morrow, however, while the Eighth and the city troop had permission to go immediately.

"Governor Pattison gave permission," was General Snowden's explanation of the reason of the change in the situation. When asked what the prospect for any or all the remainder of the militia soon receiving instructions to break camp, the general replied: "That remains to be seen."

Little or no excitement apparently was caused by the spread of the news through the town that a portion of the militia had received orders to go. Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the strikers, was at home conversing with a couple of friends when the word was brought. He seemed to treat the matter with indifference and quietly resumed the conversation, making no comment.

BRADDOCK WILL NOT STRIKE.

They Remember Their Futile Appeal to Homestead Workers in 1887.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 26.—The Homestead men have apparently abandoned all endeavors to bring the Braddock workers out on a strike. After four days of proselyting the leaders are somewhat discouraged and say that Braddock seems determined to continue at work, notwithstanding the combined pressure of other Carnegie operatives. A member of the advisory committee said today that he had been informed by several Amalgamated men who had gone among the Braddock men that they had not forgotten the fruitless appeals for assistance they made to Homestead in 1887, and were disinclined to strike for sympathy purely. Several of the locked out men, although aware that the leaders have given up the Edgar Thompson plant, are still hopeful of bringing them out.

The intense heat has prostrated many of General Superintendent Potter's non-union men, it is alleged by the Amalgamated scouts. At all events there is not the activity that was manifested around the mill yesterday and no plate was rolled this morning.

DO NOT NEED CARNEGIE.

He Will Not Come to America—The Homestead Mill—600 Men at Work.

PITTSBURGH, July 26.—The officials of the Carnegie company intend to show that they are capable of taking care of the present situation, even with Mr. Frick disabled. To-day Mr. Lovejoy said: "Mr. Carnegie will not come here till we send for him. He cabled asking if his presence was needed, and was answered it was not, that we were in good shape and that it was not necessary for him to come."

Mr. Carnegie was away from a telegraph station and did not learn of the strike until yesterday.

The Homestead mill is receiving most of the attention from the officials of the Carnegie Steel Company, and already there are a large number of men at work. Mr. Lovejoy to-day said: "There are now almost 600 men at work in the Homestead mill, and of these a good many are skilled workmen, and the work being turned out is entirely satisfactory, and the plate being rolled first class in every particular. We have no complaints to make about the work, and the men we already have could not be better."

"More men will be sent up to-day, I really do not know how many, and these have all been selected from the large number of applications we have on file."

CARNEGIE INTERVIEWED.

Has Implicit Confidence of Those in Charge of His Business Interests.

LONDON, July 26.—The representative of the Associated Press yesterday drove from Kingussie to Bannoch Lodge, on Loch Bannoch, Scotland, the residence of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and made repeated efforts to obtain an interview with Mr. Carnegie in order to obtain a statement from him of his views regarding the trouble at Homestead, Pa., and more especially concerning the shooting of Mr. H. C. Frick, but his mission then proved fruitless. This morning, however, he was more successful and was finally admitted to Mr. Carnegie's presence. The representative opened the interview by saying to Mr. Carnegie "in view of the events of Saturday last at Homestead, I have come to ask again for an expression of your opinion of the outcome of the Homestead troubles."

At first Mr. Carnegie positively refused to discuss any phase of the situation, but after persistent interrogations by his caller finally said: "Well, I authorize you to make the following statement: I have not attended to business for the past three years, but I have implicit confidence in those who are managing the mills. Further than that I have nothing to say."

It is known that Mr. Carnegie is greatly disturbed by the attack on Mr. Frick, and that he daily receives many cable dispatches giving the fullest particulars of his condition.

It is very evident that Mr. Carnegie has no intention of returning to America at this time.

BERGMAN'S STATEMENT

He Will Not Be Allowed to Make It Until Further Arrests are Made.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 26.—Alexander Bergman indicated his intention to make a statement to the Associated Press of his reasons for shooting H. C. Frick and his story of the attempted assassination as soon as he should be settled in the jail. This morning an attempt was made to see the young man. Warden McAleese declined for the present to permit anybody to have access to the prisoner, whether with his consent or not. The warden said that since Bergman's reception in the jail he has been absolutely isolated. He has not been permitted to speak with any of the other prisoners, nor to buy any newspapers, and he is still in ignorance of the fact that any other arrests have been made or threatened by the police. This has been done in order to further the ends of justice, as it is believed that Bergman is on the eve of making serious revelations which might be prevented if he knew that other arrests had been made.

TWO ARRESTS

That May Clear Up the Mystery That Surrounds Assassin Bergman.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 26.—The arrest of F. Mollick at Long Branch and H. Bauer in Allegheny today, it is believed by the police, will greatly aid them in clearing the mystery that now surrounds the would-be assassin and anarchist, Alexander Bergman. Mollick is the man who sent Bergman the money from Long Branch last week, and Bauer is the recognized leader of anarchists in this section. He succeeded Herr Frick upon the death of the latter two years ago as the agent for the distribution of anarchistic literature, and the police have been watching him for some months.

Bauer was arrested at his home, No. 73 Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, at 10 o'clock this morning by Detectives Shore and McTigue, and is now in the central station.

Bauer showed no surprise when arrested and took the matter coolly. He is about 30 years of age very intelligent looking and much clearer in appearance than the average anarchist. The Allegheny police say he is one of the most violent anarchists in this section. They believe they have a good case against him. Upon the receipt of the news that Mollick had been captured Chief Brown instructed Superintendent O'Mara to go to Long Branch and await papers which were forwarded this afternoon. He will be brought here for trial.

Casper Knoll, the anarchist arrested last night is still at central station. No information has yet been made against him and he will be detained in the station till his record in connection with Bergman is more fully investigated.

More Non-Union Men Arrive.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 26.—Three carloads of non-union men, in all about 150, arrived from the east this morning and were taken at once to the Homestead plant.

The firm anticipates but comparatively little difficulty in operating the mill full blast in a shorter time than at first seemed probable. Everything is quiet at the other plants and no effort will be made to resume until Homestead is supplied with a full complement of men.

To Aid the Homesteaders.

ST. PAUL, MINN., July 26.—The labor mass meeting last night decided to push the collection of funds to send attorneys W. W. Erwin and C. W. Arno to Pittsburgh to defend the arrested Homesteaders. The funds will be raised by the Twin City labor organizations.

The base ball games throughout the country yesterday resulted as follows: Boston, 10; Louisville, 4. Brooklyn, 12; Pittsburgh, 5. Washington, 10; St. Louis, 8. Philadelphia, 26; Cincinnati, 6. Chicago, 3; Baltimore, 2. New York, 6; Cleveland, 4.

2:29 class, trotting, purse $2,000, Minto Wilkes won. Time, 2:20.

What a Lighted Pipe Did.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 26.—Shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon, Edward Lawler, one of five workmen in a conduit near the corner of Fifth avenue and Liberty street, caused a terrific explosion by lighting his pipe. The explosion caused the serious injury of all the men and was the result of the igniting of either natural or sewer gas, it cannot yet be stated which.

Those injured are: Edward Lawler, Martin Larkin, Thomas Keenan, Samuel Sedgwick and Michael Griffin.

Council Fails to Meet.

A few members of Council went to the city building last night to attend the regular meeting, but there were so very few, even at 8 o'clock, that all hope of obtaining a quorum was given up, and the few who had come left. Important business was to be transacted, and it is probable that a special session will be called before the end of the week. The ordinance granting Baer Bros. the right to lay a railroad switch to the new building now being put up northeast of the new stone bridge must be passed before the bridge can be paved and the street car company finish laying its tracks.

The weather was so hot that the councilmen couldn't bring themselves to face the heated atmosphere of the Council chamber. Besides, a good many are out of town, at the various fishing camps.

A Fight Last Night.

About twelve o'clock last night a fight occurred on Market street, in front of the Green house, in consequence of which Ed. Emhoff and John Reinacher, hostlers at the Green house, were arrested and George Mager gave himself up. The fight started, according to an eyewitness, with an unprovoked assault on Mager. The latter stepped up to where the hostlers were sitting, and clapping one of them on the knee, asked him to take a drink. The hostler arose and struck Mager a violent blow with a chair. The fight became general and Mager had both the men to keep off.

Near Frenchburg Tom Howard was instantly killed and George Rayburn fatally injured. They were pursuing a horse thief named Hurley, who after the fight made his escape.

Sold Tickets for Anarchists' Meeting.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 26.—A young man named Fritz Simmons, employed in Klein's stove factory, was arrested on the South Side this evening for selling tickets for a meeting of anarchists, and distributing anarchistic documents. He was released on bail.

A GOOD SHOW

We are always advising you to advertise, and to keep on advertising, but that does not cover the ground entirely. Of course, you should make your advertising effective—if an electric light be available, you should not use a "tallow dip" to light the path to your store.

What do we mean by that? Simply that the more conspicuous, the more artistic, the more attractive, the more original you make your advertisements, the more people will see and read them, and the more customers you will have to contribute to your cash-drawer.

Study effects in bold pretty type—good matter may be spoiled by ugly dressing. Seek to catch the eye by a display of good taste in the style and arrangement of your announcement.

Above all, let it be bold enough to be easily read. Don't vex a reader by vexing his or her eyes!
